

Venue Hire

Your place in The City to meet

With affordable training and meeting rooms to hire in the heart of the City of London, the City Business Library truly is the place in the City to meet. Whether you are planning a large evening event, a day time conference or just a meeting with a client or colleague we have a variety of rooms to suit all your needs.

Set in the historic Guildhall complex, the City Business Library is a business hub offering affordable and flexible meeting rooms that hold between 6 - 100 guests depending on the room and layout you choose. We can provide flexible layouts from theatre to boardroom and can even convert our main library into a unique space for you to hold an event outside hours.

Our space is very adaptable and we can accommodate training, seminars, conferences, meetings, networking or drinks receptions. We also have desks to hire if you need a place in the City to work!

We have five rooms available all with free Wi-Fi. Four of the rooms also have a laptop, projector and flipchart.

Prices start at £10 per hour, please contact us to book your room or to find our more information.

Discounts for charities and block booking are available.
